SECOND DRAFT CALL OF 150 MEN FOR BOURBON.

The first call of drafted men from Paris and Bourbon county having failed to fill out the quota, owing to numerous exemptions, a second call for 150 young men has been issued by the Board of Exemption.

Small's name was added to the "roll of honor," making the forty-fifth man from old Bourbon who was willing to make the great sacrifice.

The Board exempted a total of ninety-one men, whose claims will be passed up to the District Board at Lexington for final review.

WAYNE COTTINGHAM TAKES POSITION WITH LEADER.

Mr. Wayne Cottingham, who has for some time past been a member of the reportorial staff of the Kentuckian-Citizen, in this city, has resigned that place and has gone to Lexington, where he has become a member of the Lexington Leader's staff.

Mr. Cottingham is one of the brightest young newspaper men in the State and the valuable experience he gained in the conduct of the Kentucky Kernel, the official organ of State University, and his work on the Kentuckian-Citizen, will stand him in good stead in the work on a daily paper. We are confident Wayne will make good, for he has that valuable and indispensable quality in a newspaper man, the ability to gather and write news that is news.

FORMER PARISIAN FIGURES IN WILD WEST HOLD-UP.

Mr. James B. Fee, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gus Fee, of Paris, who has been residing on a big fruit ranch near Merriam, Kansas, for several years, figured recently in a genuine Wild West "hold-up" in the Ozark Mountains, according to letter to friends and relatives in Paris.

Mr. Fee and a number of companions had been on a camping trip in the Ozark Mountain region. After breaking camp they stopped en route to Merriam and took in two young lady friends, daughters of neighbors, who had been visiting near their camp. As the party was coming through a wild section of the country in their automobile two "stick-up artists" suddenly appeared from behind huge boulders at the side of the road, and covering the party with their rifles, made them shell out their possessions in true Wild West style.

They took all the money, jewelry, arms and food the party possessed and made them proceed on their way. The hold-up men disappeared. Mr. Fee and party proceeded to the nearest rancho house, where their most pressing wants were relieved and they were enabled to return to the Merriam rancho. Mr. Fee said it was the most dramatic moment of his life when he looked into the muzzles of those rifles and knew what the party was up against.

THE THIRTY THOUSAND CAMPAIGN.

The campaign for $30,000 for school equipment for Kentucky's 30,000 illiterate soldiers is still in progress in a few counties, and the results cannot be determined until all have finished and reported. The Ninth Congressional District, of which J. W. M. Stewart, of Ashland, is commander, is in the lead, having turned in $1,650 on its apportionment. Mason, Boyd, Carroll and Marion are counties that have oversubscribed. The largest single contribution, $100, was from Mr. Theodore Ahrens, a Cleveland, Ohio, man, who has a branch business in Kentucky. Ahrens & Ott, of Louisville.

"THE DESERTED VILLAGE."

Paris was almost deserted Sunday. Boating and bathing parties up Stoner creek, the usual quota of "stay-at-homes," large numbers going to Boonesboro and several hundred going to see the big military parade by the soldier boys of the Second and Third regiments at Camp Stanley, near Lexington, gave the town a really deserted appearance.

RECRUITING OFFICERS ADMIRE BOURBON COUNTY HUSKY.

There was a look of genuine admiration in the eyes of Chief Gunner's Mate Mannegold, when Kenney Kiser, of Bourbon county, took his six-foot-four and 200 pounds of muscle and bone into the navy recruiting station in Lexington, Saturday, and proudly announced that he wanted to help defeat the Germans and the Kaiser across the big pond.

After Chief Gunner's Mate Mannegold had climbed up on a high chair and made an examination of Mr. Kiser's eyes, ears, etc., he pronounced him a perfect specimen physically and in every other way and put him on the waiting list.

Mr. Kiser is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Walker Kiser, of near Paris, from a neighborhood where they raise real men.

BIG CROWD SEES PARADE AT LEXINGTON.

An audience estimated to be close to 20,000 persons from all parts of the State witnessed the final parade of the 4,000 troops of the three Kentucky National Guard regiments at Camp Stanley, near Lexington, Sunday afternoon.

Gov. Stanley reviewed the troops from a stand by the side of the parade grounds, and Brigadier-General Roger D. Williams and Adjutant-General J. Tandy Ellis, were also in the stand. All three officials expressed themselves as being well satisfied with the training and condition of the battalion.

MATERIAL WANTED FOR RED CROSS WORK.

A request has been made by Mrs. William G. McClintock, of Paris, Chairman of the Bourbon County Red Cross Chapter, that all women interested in knitting garments for the soldiers please report to her at once.

The local Chapter has been asked to furnish 250 sweaters, 250 scarfs and 250 pairs of wrist warmers, all knitted, for the men who will go to the army camps soon. The material for this work will be furnished to the volunteer workers. It is earnestly hoped the response will be a generous one.

It is also requested that anyone who can furnish scraps of yarn and wool for the use of "The Snippers," the juvenile auxiliary of the Red Cross workers, will please do so at once, and send the material to the Red Cross sewing rooms at the corner of Main and Third streets. These scraps will be made into fracture pillows and other hospital necessities by the young workers.

The following telegram was received here by Mrs. Arthur B. Hancock, Acting Chairman of the Red Cross, from Mr. J. J. O'Connor, Director of the Central Division, with headquarters at Chicago:

"Chicago, Illinois, Aug. 15, 1917. "Mrs. A. B. Hancock, Chairman, Paris, Ky.:

"Red Cross has urgent call from Major Grayson Murphy for enormous quantities of knitted woolen articles. Here is a cablegram from Major Murphy: 'Last winter broke record for cold and misery among people here. Inexpressible dread coming winter finding us without supplies to meet situation. Urge you on behalf of our soldiers and those of our allies who will suffer in their frozen trenches and also thousands of French and Belgian refugees and repatriates being returned through Switzerland and France. Everyone here looks to America. Begin shipping at once one million five hundred thousand each of warm knitted woolen articles already requested. They must come before cold weather and view of shortage of fuel and other discomforts they will be of incredible value in both military and civilian work.'

"We ask your Chapter to furnish a definite number of this requirement. Your allotment is 250 sweaters, 250 mufflers, 250 pairs wristlets, 250 pairs socks. Full instructions will follow in two days. Ask your members to finish all knitting work now on hand and clear the deck for action. Want every Chapter to have a chance to do its part in making good on this call for help from France.

"J. J. O'CONNOR, "Director Central Division.

The members of the Chapter spent an hour in making and furnishing supplies for the Massie Memorial Hospital, which were afterward forwarded to the institution. At the conclusion of the exercises the Regent, Mrs. Talbott, who was hostess for the occasion, served ices and cakes to the ladies of the Chapter.

The next meeting of the Chapter will be held on the first Saturday in October, when delegates will be selected to attend the State Convention of the D. A. R., which is to be held at Fort Thomas about the middle of October.

DOG DAYS PRODUCTIVE OF MANY SCRAPS.

The heat wave of these August "dog days" seem to be productive of a desire to contribute personally to the warring element of humanity. This seemed especially so in Paris Saturday and Sunday.

Saturday afternoon W. O. Butler and son, Grover Butler, became involved in an altercation with Lyt. Lawrence, well-known to Paris people, in which fists, knives and a jug played the leading parts. Lawrence was badly used up in the encounter. He was placed under arrest and taken to jail.

Saturday night two negroes and two white boys engaged in a mix-up near the Grosche Bakery Co.'s plant, caused, it was alleged, by the white boys pushing the negroes from the pavement. One of the white boys named Carter, was hit in the mouth with a pair of brass knucks and rendered unconscious. The other boy, named Webb, from North Middletown, was cut about the face, neck and shoulders with a knife in the hands of one of the negroes. Jesse Robertson, colored, alleged to have done the cutting, was placed under arrest and jailed by the Paris police. Search is being made by the police for W. S. Lewis, colored, alleged to have been the man who used the knucks on the Carter boy. The injured men were removed to their homes, where they were given medical attention.

Sunday night Bud Henry Johnson, colored, became tired of the monotony of life in the placid precincts of Brentsville and proceeded to take a few shots at a "lady friend." None of the shots took effect. A telephone call for the police brought Chief Link to the scene. Johnson was placed under arrest and jailed on a charge of malicious shooting.

Sunday night two well-known young Paris men enlivened the neighborhood of the Bourbon Garage & Supply Co. by resorting to the manly art in settling a matter of personal difference which arose out of a friendly scuffle. Friends interfered and separated the combatants before serious damage was done.

FAREWELL SUMMER DANCE

"Farewell, summer, hello, winter," will soon be the slogan in society as well as in business circles. While the social calendar has been rather light, there have been a few events that have been of a delightful nature. One of these was the annual August dance, given some weeks ago.

The promoters, Messrs. John M. Stuart and Ireland Davis, are promoting another of these events, which they have characterized as a "Farewell Summer Dance." This will be in the big ballroom of the Masonic Temple, in this city, on the evening of Tuesday, August 21. Music for the occasion will be furnished by the Smith Saxophone Orchestra. This will be a subscription dance, the proceeds to be devoted to the work of the Bourbon County Red Cross.

The following young ladies from out of town will be guests of friends for the dance: Miss Ruth Pinnell, of Winchester, with Miss Agnes Turner; Misses Margaret Burch, of Lexington, and Frances Gelsel, Maysville, with Misses Anna and Catherine Wilson; Misses Elizabeth Erdman, of Lexington, Nancy Anderson, of Georgetown, and Juliet Lee Risque, of Midway, with Misses Mary Kenney Webber; Misses Marcella and Arris Chiles, of Mt. Sterling; Miss Mary Sommerville, of Alabama, with Mrs. J. T. Vansant; Misses Lucile Burnaugh and Mary Vaughn Tilton, of Carlisle, with Mrs. Curtis Henry; Miss Lucille Morrison, of Huntington, W. Va., with Miss Lena Johnson; Miss Thelma Carter; Miss Russell Shipp, of Lexington, with Mrs. Wm. Talbott.

"THE LAW OF COMPENSATION" AT OPERA HOUSE AND ALAMO

"The Law of Compensation," which will be seen at the Alamo Theatre to-morrow afternoon and at the Paris Grand to-morrow night, with Miss Talmadge as the star, is the latest of the Selznick-Pictures releases. So consistent has been the high grade of the productions under this banner that it is beginning to be recognized as a guarantee of quality. "The Law of Compensation" is a worthy member of the family of successes which includes "The Common Law," "War Brides," "Panthea," "The Argyle Case," and "The Eternal Sin." Like the other Selznick releases, it is by a noted author, Wilson Mizner, who became internationally famous through his collaborations with Paul Armstrong, in "Alias Jimmy Valentine" and "The Deep Purple."
